

UTA Edenred gains 1,350 additional partners through cooperation with TRAVIS Road Services

- UTA Card can now be used within the TRAVIS network
- UTA customers benefit from expanded UTA Plus Services options in 17 European countries
- TRAVIS booking platform is now available to UTA customers

Kleinostheim, Germany – UTA Edenred, a leading mobility service provider in Europe and an Edenred company, is expanding its Europe-wide acceptance network through a partnership with the TRAVIS Road Services booking platform. UTA Edenred customers gain 1,350 additional service partners in 17 European countries through which they can book UTA Plus Services such as vehicle washes, tank cleaning, truck parking and repairs – and settle them cashlessly with their UTA Card.

Lukas Schneider, Chief Strategic Partnerships Officer at UTA Edenred, says: "Transportation companies and freight forwarders are continually faced with the challenge of identifying suitable service locations across Europe and factoring them into their route planning. Through our partnership with TRAVIS Road Services, we can now give customers access to a collective network of around 73,000 acceptance points in Europe. This helps them save time, avoid lengthy detours and minimise costly downtime in their day-to-day operations."

Jochem de Graaf, COO of TRAVIS Road Services, adds: "As one of Europe's leading mobility providers, it made sense to collaborate with UTA Edenred and provide even more value and convenience to transportation companies and road service providers. Beyond an expanded service network, UTA Edenred customers can instantly access TRAVIS Road Services' booking platform to quickly and efficiently identify, schedule and settle desired road services."
